Winter Fun
AT-HOME ADVENTURE

Skill-based activities to keep kids ages 3–11 learning all winter long!

1. Choose ONE activity from each category: math, language, creative arts, family fun, science and indoor explorers.
2. Take photos or save an object from one completed task in each category.
3. Bring them to your local Lakeshore store through 12/31/26 to claim your FREE GIFT!

Math

- Count and sort buttons by size, shape or color.
- Use cotton balls to play a snowball toss game and keep score.
- Cut paper snowflakes and explore patterns.
- Play a math card game like "Make Ten" or "War."

Language

- Draw or write a letter to a winter character—like a snowman, a polar bear or your favorite book hero.
- Create a winter poem or a silly snow-themed tongue twister.
- Read a story aloud using different voices for each character.
- Make a winter-themed picture book and read it to a family member.

Creative Arts

- Create a collage with paper "snow," glitter and winter magazine cutouts.
- Paint a snowy night scene using cotton swabs.
- Make a creature out of socks.
- Glue three paper plates together to create a snowman and decorate it.

Family Fun

- Have an indoor campout with blanket tents and flashlights.
- Play winter-themed charades.
- Add favorite winter moments to a memory jar and draw from it weekly.
- Measure ingredients for cookies to bake and enjoy.

Science

- Make a wintry sensory bin with cotton balls, white pom-poms and salt.
- Place paper clips on a paper plate and move them with a magnet beneath the plate.
- Test materials like foil and plastic to see which keep ice from melting longer outside the freezer.
- Create a mini snow globe in a jar using oil, glitter and water.

Indoor Explorers

- Set up a treasure hunt with snowflake-shaped clues around your home.
- Make binoculars from paper tubes and explore different rooms.
- Go on a sensory walk through the house. Describe any smells, sounds or textures.
- Draw a blueprint showing the floor plan of your home for someone who's never visited before.
