

Correct the Sentence

Grammar and Usage

Instructions:

Read each sentence and rewrite it correctly on the lines underneath. Be on the lookout for capitalization, punctuation, and title treatment errors!

Helpful Hint:

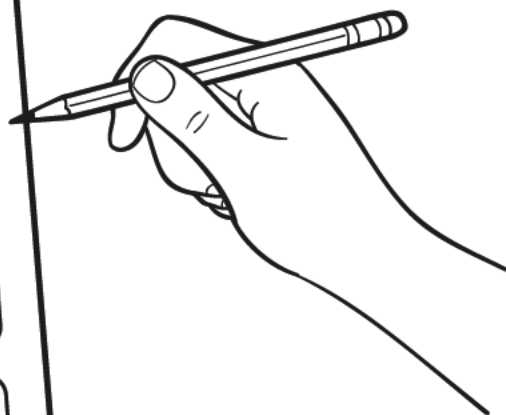

- Titles of books and magazines are underlined or italicized.
Example: I read the novel Charlotte's Web in only three days!
- Titles of magazine articles, short stories, and poems use quotation marks.
Example: I really like the poem "Jabberwocky" by Lewis Carroll.
- Proper nouns and key words in titles are capitalized.
Example: Tina read the short story "On the River" today.
- Use commas to separate independent clauses when they are joined by a conjunction.
Example: Tomorrow is Saturday, so we will be going to the movies!
- Use commas after introductory phrases of more than three words.
Example: If you are going on the trip, you will have to pack right away.

Correct the Sentence

1	My Mother is reading the novel great expectations by charles dickens. My mother is reading the novel Great Expectations by Charles Dickens.
2	by the time we got home my sister was half asleep. _____
3	my favorite book is either a walk in the forest or going to the beach. _____
4	At camp this year Connor was assigned to bunk with Pablo, andre, and Brandon. _____
5	I read an interesting article in amazing animals magazine. _____
6	I finished my homework but joey is still reading a magazine article called climbing the Andes mountains. _____

5-53
©Lakeshore

www.lakeshorelearning.com

Correct the Sentence

1

My Mother is reading the novel great expectations by charles dickens.

2

by the time we got home my sister was half asleep.

3

my favorite book is either a walk in the forest or going to the beach.

4

At camp this year Connor was assigned to bunk with Pablo, andre, and Brandon.

5

I read an interesting article in amazing animals magazine.

6

I finished my homework but joey is still reading a magazine article called climbing the Andes mountains.

Answer Key

1

My Mother is reading the novel great expectations by charles dickens.

My mother is reading the novel Great Expectations by Charles Dickens.

2

by the time we got home my sister was half asleep.

By the time we got home, my sister was half asleep.

3

my favorite book is either a walk in the forest or going to the beach.

My favorite book is either A Walk in the Forest or Going to the Beach.

4

At camp this year Connor was assigned to bunk with Pablo, andre, and Brandon.

At camp this year, Connor was assigned to bunk with Pablo, Andre, and Brandon.

5

I read an interesting article in amazing animals magazine.

I read an interesting article in Amazing Animals magazine.

6

I finished my homework but joey is still reading a magazine article called climbing the Andes mountains.

I finished my homework, but Joey is still reading a magazine article called "Climbing the Andes Mountains."